

Torture to Christina is
Coloring plans in Revit
But David's got to have it,
He's got to exhibit
Her beautiful palette of pastels, pink & purple

Because it sells
And its hell
But it sells our ideas
To the clients
Who can't discern two rooms
Unless the colors are different
Reading the tags would be too easy
So instead we're feeding the clients
Sleazy color-coated posters of spewed Crayolas

All the while, Christina plots revenge again and again
As she plot he plans to the plotter
And when it breaks, she has to remember
It's a beautiful Friday
And at least it's not December.
